Chapter Thirty One

Friday, July 2, 2021 7:16pm

As presented by (the spirit of) Mary (Tyler Moore)

110. It's fun to be a role model and make people see the humor in everyday life situations. Just don't take yourself too seriously.

111. We're all here for a specified period of time. Make the most of it.

112. Be smart with your choices. The dumb ones tend to have a long shelf life.

113. I love animals. Do what you can for them. If you can't be a pet owner, give a little money to a local shelter to support their efforts to find forever homes for all of the fur babies.

End Time: 7:20pm

Chapter Thirty Two

Friday, July 2, 2021 7:22pm

As presented by (the spirit of) Ruth (Bader Ginsburg)

114. I see now that there is no justice there. No matter how hard we attempted to make it happen, there just isn't space in the human world for true justice. There are only minute degrees of it.

115. Minority rights vs. majority rights. Why are we still talking about these things in the twenty-first century?

116. Being open minded is always a good thing. It means that new ideas have some breathing room and won't be immediately shut out.

End Time: 7:26pm

Chapter Thirty Three

Friday, July 2, 2021 7:29pm

As presented by (the spirit of) Sally (Ride)

117. Space exploration is important because it lets mankind know how insignificant it is.

118. Women can accomplish whatever they set out to accomplish, with or without the help and approval of men.

End Time: 7:32pm

Chapter Thirty Four

Friday, July 2, 2021 7:34pm
As presented by (the spirit of) Julia (Child)

119. If you enjoy creating through cooking and baking, more power to you. If I inspired you, now you can inspire those you know. What's the worst thing that could happen? A little burned crust of bread never killed anyone.

End Time: 7:37pm

Chapter Thirty Five

Saturday, July 3, 2021 6:32am

As presented by (the spirit of) Lucille (Ball)

120. Being able to offer yourself up as something to laugh at is fine, as long as you're laughing with them.

121. My comedy was all about relationships, the ones I had with the other actors, and the ones I have with the audience. I say 'I have', because my shows are still shown all across the world, even to this day.

122. It is my greatest blessing to be able to come into people's homes, and get them to focus on something that isn't their own set of problems.

123. Everyone is part of your family. It doesn't matter where you are or what language you speak. We're all in this together.

End Time: 6:40am

Chapter Thirty Six

Saturday, July 3, 2021 6:42am

As presented by (the spirit of) George (Burns)

124. My, how times have changed. In my day, a loaf of bread cost 10 cents, not 5 dollars.

125. Do what you love doing and be kind while you're doing it.

End Time: 6:44am

Chapter Thirty Seven

Saturday, July 3, 2021 6:45am

As presented by (the spirit of) Amy (Winehouse)

126. Don't get overwhelmed by the world. If you do, bad things can happen.
127. Being the focus of attention all of the time is not a good thing.
128. Know what you're getting into. If it doesn't feel right, turn around and walk in the opposite direction. Change your phone number if you must. Just know that sometimes, other people do not have your best interests at heart. They may not know what's best for you, or even care what's best for you. Remember this please.

End Time: 6:50am

Chapter Thirty Eight

Saturday, July 3, 2021 6:52am

As presented by (the spirit of) Gerald (Ford)

129. Cleaning up your own mess isn't always an easy job, but cleaning up someone else's is another thing all together.

130. Sometimes being that bland guy who is rather clumsy can be a good thing. it takes people's minds off of their bigger problems.

End Time: 6:55am

Chapter Thirty Nine

Saturday, July 3, 2021 6:56m

As presented by (the spirit of) Richard (Nixon)

131. Lies are like spider webs. They become so tightly weaved that you can't escape from them.

End Time: 6:58am

Chapter Forty

Saturday, July 3, 2021 1:51pm

As presented by (the spirit of) Elvis (Presley)

132. People think I sang all of those songs. I know now that this wasn't true. My soul was singing through me. It wasn't 'my' talent that was doing it. It was the great Divine Spirit.

End Time: 1:54pm