76. The problem with being human is that everything is so loud. No wonder we can't hear God's whispers.
77. When you're dressed up, you really reflect God's razzle dazzle.
78. When you're dressed in rags, you reflect the humbleness of God.

79. Wear whatever makes you feel good about yourself and your accomplishments, not for attention, but as a way of honoring what is within.
80. If you haven't already started to do so, question everything, absolutely everything. It's the questioning that will get you where you need to be.
81. My music was recorded and sold for money. Sell your music by simply being it and then give it away. You will be the richest one around.
82. I changed my appearance frequently and adopted different personas through decades, but people still didn't really know who I was in the end. Save yourself the time and effort and be your true self today.
83. Make a difference in someone else's life by being real, by being flawed, and by being honest.

End Time: 1:23pm

Chapter Twenty Three

Friday, July 2, 2021 8:26am

As presented by (the spirit of) Jack (John F. Kennedy)

84. As long as we believe that we have to have laws that govern our relations with one another, let's aim to make them include forgiveness as a way to wipe away any penalties.
85. Before any new law is passed, it should be evaluated for any shred of fear. And if any is found, the law should go back to the drawing board. This will ensure that no new laws are passed. The same standard can be used to eliminate virtually all existing laws.

End Time: 8:32am

86. No one should live in a mansion or wear designer clothes until everyone is fed.
87. Humanitarian efforts are truly the only thing that matters here. They encourage cooperation and relationship building. To help those born into poverty and difficult situations, to at least have a fighting chance.
88. Look in the mirror. You should see everyone looking back at you asking “What will you do for us today”?

Chapter Twenty Six

Friday, July 2, 2021 8:45am

As presented by (the spirit of) Ronald (Reagan)

90. The problem in the world is that everyone is defined by which piece of real estate they belong to.
91. There really aren't political parties, agendas, support for some ideas, and opposition to others. None of this really gets to the heart of the matter. Which is that each and every one of us is made in the image of God, and we are all larger than silly little ideas anyway.

End Time: 8:51am

Chapter Twenty Seven

Friday, July 2, 2021 1:08pm

As presented by Jesus

92. Stop nailing yourself to a cross. Stop carrying around the burdens that the past brings.
93. Admit it. Forgiveness implies that you didn't really understand what transpired. You are really forgiving your own ignorance.
94. It's too easy to look at others and see special things that you don't think you have. It's dishonest.
95. Tell the truth in all things, even if it may be considered unflattering. Ugliness in any fashion is better than dishonesty.
96. Don't worry about what your brother or sister is doing until you have taken care of cleaning your own house first.

End Time: 1:17pm

97. Apply truth to yourself. Ask, what does this say about me?
98. Friends support one another. Even if Jesus had not been teaching the truth, I would have still been his friend. Friendship transcends everything.
99. The world is a bastion of shame and guilt. Love simply does not support these things.

100. Ask “Can I help you? What can I do?”
101. Bless everyone on your path. Your gifts will wait until they are ready to receive them.
102. You don’t have to know all of the details. Just embrace knowing that only love is real. Everything else is a work in progress.
103. Treat every woman, man, and child as the treasure that they are, even when they aren’t acting like a treasure.
104. Make sure your needs are met and then give away part of what is left over. This is very appropriate for this day and age, as it was in the past.
105. Try not to forget the truth of your true identity. Remind yourself at least once every morning, afternoon, and evening.
106. Remember that you are an aspect of God. What a beautiful reality that is!
