"179. Don't shoot anybody. Get a grip if you ever think about it. You know you're starting to lose it if you entertain thoughts of hurting someone else. Do anything to ask for help. Yell from the rooftop if you have to. Don't go down the path of destruction like I did."

"180. I killed people, robbed banks and paid the price for it, the ultimate price. I didn't go to hell but when I woke up and realized that I wasn't there anymore, I just stopped growing. It was a long time before I would accept any help. I lingered between worlds and gravitated toward other criminal types. I tried to warn them but they couldn't hear me. I was all alone. There were others who lingered but they weren't very sociable. Eventually, I accepted the offer to join Bonnie and others in the light. That was my best decision. That was in 2013 in earth years. I Am doing fine now by the way."

"181. I rapped about all of the meaningless stuff in life, as if it had any meaning. It was a way to become notorious and make a name for myself. Little kids looked up to me as if I was really something. They couldn't see and I couldn't see that I was really nothing. I completely missed the point of life. Next time, I strive to do better."
