

A Journey into the Unknown
Proverbs for the New Age
Chapter 70

Tuesday, July 6, 2021
8:20 AM

As Presented by (the spirit of) Barbara (Bush)

" 193. I was a strong woman with a strong family. I enjoyed my life and have no regrets. By the way, it's true that you get to spend time with all of your old friends and family members when you cross over. George and I are still inseparable. "

As Presented by (the spirit of) Daryl (~~Pantera~~)
(Abbott)

"194. I liked playing a guitar like it had never been played before. It was my legacy to challenge everyone who come after me to raise the bar.

195. They say that you go to your own funeral. It's true. I went to mine. People grieve not so much for you but for the fact that something in them has ended. That's why it's so painful. It hits really close to home."

2:43 PM

As Presented by (the spirit of): Karl (Marx)

" 196. You are free to think of any idea, any concept, and yet in the end, it may prove to be quite unreliable.

197. It does seem like we are here by ourselves, doesn't it? God is really good at playing hide and go seek.

198. Marxism is a dirty word to many but it was just an attempt to share what we believed were limited resources, fairly amongst the masses. "

"200. Writing mysteries was a fun way to earn a living. In reality, we are all stars in our own mysteries.

201. Just trying to figure out life is a huge mystery in and of itself.

202. In real life, mysteries aren't so clean cut. It's much harder to figure out the answer to the question, "why did this show up in your life?"

3:04 PM

"205. The polio vaccine saved lives and prevented great hardship that would have come with paralysis.

206. Modern science can be trusted to help solve problems that don't have easy answers.

207. Figuring out why humans create disease in the first place can be the vaccine of the future.

208. Doctors and nurses heal symptoms but they don't have the ability to get at root causes.

209. Working in the medical field is a noble calling but if there won't be much disease in the future, then it will become an opportunity to retrain as just health promotion workers.

210. There's probably a lot of truth to the old adage, 'An apple a day keeps the doctor away.'

211. It is absolutely profane to charge money for people to receive the care that they need. It should be entirely free and will be in the future."

7:29 PM

As Presented by (the spirit of) Jerry (Garcia)

" 212. The hippies had a very simplistic view of the world but they were right.

213. Music cures whatever ails you.

214. Having a brand of ice cream named after you is almost as good as leaving a body of music. I just wish I could taste it."
