

A Journey into the Unknown
Proverbs for the New Age
Chapter 91

Thursday, July 8, 2021
9:05 AM

As Presented by (the Spirit of) Indira Gandhi

"245. Being a female head of state meant that I brought compassion front and center, each and every day.

246. Female leaders don't lead with bravado, although we know a little is available when needed. It should be like salt and used sparingly.

247. Not every woman in a position of authority in today's world, allows her feminine energy to lead her. Some check it at the door, thinking it won't be accepted or appreciated, but in truth, the feminine energy is exactly what is needed, not more of the same."

End Time: 9:14 AM

A Journey into The Unknown
Proverbs for the New Age
Chapter 92

As Presented by (the spirit of) Geraldine Ferraro

Thursday, July 8, 2021
9:16 AM

"248. Women can be just as obnoxious as men. The temptation is always there.

249. Behind closed doors, most political leaders step out of the character and relax. It's when the cameras and the press are around that they all turn into these crazy maniacs."

End Time: 9:20 AM

A Journey into The Unknown
Proverbs for the New Age
Chapter 93

Thursday, July 8, 2021
9:22 AM

As Presented by (the spirit of) Walter (Mondale)

"250. It pains me to see what has transpired in America's politics.
We're forgotten who we are as a people.

251. When compromising is considered a sign of weakness,
you know that things are deteriorating.

252. Democracy itself is becoming a dirty word in some circles.
It means that people you don't like or value have a voice to be heard. You can't have a democracy if you don't like or value your neighbors."

End Time: 9:28 AM

A Journey into the Unknown
Proverbs for the New Age
Chapter 94

As Presented by (the spirit of) Mary (Wilson)

Thursday, July 8, 2021
9:30 AM

"253. Relationships cannot be restored if both or all parties aren't willing to meet in the middle and talk about the really hard stuff.

254. When things were good, they were good. That's what I choose to remember."

End Time: 9:33 AM

A Journey into the Unknown
Proverbs for the New Age
Chapter 95
As Presented by (the spirit of) Mohammed (Ali)

Thursday, July 8, 2021
9:35 AM

"255. Ego and self promotion led to my downfall. In the sport I participated in, I wanted to hurt so I could look good and be on the front page the next day. This is no way to live."

End Time: 9:38 AM

A Journey into The Unknown
Proverbs for the New Age

Chapter 96

As Presented by (the spirit of) Jerry Falwell)

Thursday, July 8, 2021
1:07 PM

"256. If we didn't talk about how evil other people are during Sunday church services, would you ~~go~~ still go?"

257. I guess you could say that the fire and brimstone of the old testament appealed to me more than Jesus' messages of forgiveness did."

End Time: 1:10 PM

A Journey into the Unknown
Proverbs for the New Age

Chapter 97

As Presented by (the spirit of) Tammy (Fay Baker)

Thursday, July 8, 2021

1:11 PM

Faye ~~Baker~~ Messner

"258. I was a little too honest for many in the Christian community.

259. I didn't really find God but God found me after I was banished from the church. The church imprisoned me away from God.

260. My advice is to try to discover the church in your own heart. Don't look for it anywhere else because you won't find it in a building or even a group of people. It's inside of you."

End Time 1:16 pm

A Journey into The Unknown
Proverbs for the New Age

Chapter 98

Kitty
As Presented by (the spirit of) ~~Kitty~~ (Wells)

Thursday, July 8, 2021
1:19 PM

"261. Being a country star was better than being a nobody but now I don't feel that way anymore. Being a nobody is definitely better.

262. People relate to music because it reflects back to them things they are going through.

263. The thing I remember most is going down to town and just seeing lots of smiles on people's faces. That made it all worthwhile to me.

264. Country music is all about turning the lemons life gives you into lemonade.

265. No one saw "the real me. I made sure they didn't. It's how I stayed sane."

End Time: 1:26 PM

A Journey into the Unknown
Proverbs for the New Age
Chapter 99
As Presented by (the spirit of) Tammy Wynette

Thursday, July 8, 2021
1:29 pm

"266. There's something to say about the lyrics to 'Stand by your man,' up to a point. I could do it up to a point. After that, it's goodbye.

267. You don't really have to be pretty anymore to be a star. Prettiness is overrated anyway.

268. All the big wigs in Nashville loved me but I didn't really love myself."

End Time: 1:33 pm

A Journey into The Unknown
Proverbs for the New Age
Chapter 100

As Presented by (the spirit of) Conway Twitty

Thursday, July 8, 2021
1:35 pm

"269. Making music for my fans was my offering. It was my way of saying, "We're in this together."

270. Cheating on your husband or wife was a big theme in my music. It made everything more dramatic, like a soap opera.

271. Having a mansion and lots of money in the bank don't mean a thing. It's what's in your heart that matters. It's all of the stuff no one can see."

End Time: 1:40 pm

A Journey into the Unknown
Proverbs for the New Age
(Chapter 101)
As Presented by (The Spirit of) Jim (Morrison)

Thursday, July 8, 2021
1:42 PM

"272. Music is magical. It has special powers to capture the times it was created in.

273. I used sexual energy in my performances. There's nothing wrong with it. It helps get the point across.

274. I'm proud to have been a part of the devil's music. It was about time that the devil had a place at the table."

End Time: 1:46 PM