

Chapter One Hundred Two

Thursday, July 8, 2021 7:24pm

As presented by (the spirit of) Barbara (Jordan)

275. I was a well-educated Black woman who was elected to the U.S. Congress from the state of Texas. I was the first one and am still proud of this accomplishment.
276. I believe in education, hard work, discipline, and determination. These are values that all people can share.
277. You don't have to be elected to office to make a difference. Every single one of us can make a difference in just our daily lives. Each new moment is an opportunity to make a difference.

End Time: 7:30pm

Chapter One Hundred Three

Thursday, July 8, 2021 7:33pm

As presented by (the spirit of) Ann (Richards)

278. People loved me and people hated me. Proud to be of service.

End Time: 7:34pm

Chapter One Hundred Four

Thursday, July 8, 2021 7:35pm

As presented by (the spirit of) Al (Capone)

279. I was taught by the best of the worst, so it's no wonder I turned out like I did.

280. Respect for human life has to be nurtured.

End Time: 7:39pm

Chapter One Hundred Five

Friday, July 9, 2021 8:22am

As presented by (the spirit of) Daniel (The Book of Daniel)

281. Don't underestimate the value of hard work.
282. When involved in a trade or negotiation, give a little more than you originally agreed to.
283. When the sun beats down upon your back, know that this is how God creates the virtuous.

End Time: 8:28am

Chapter One Hundred Six

Friday, July 9, 2021 8:30am

As presented by (the spirit of) St. Matthew the Apostle

- 284. I couldn't see Jesus' qualities in myself until after he was gone. Then I realized that this is what Jesus was doing. He was showing us ourselves.
- 285. The Last Supper wasn't a joyful occasion, as memorialized in the painting. There was a pending sense of doom.

End Time: 8:35am

Chapter One Hundred Seven

Friday, July 9, 2021 8:37am

As presented by (the spirit of) Ruth

286. Teach your children (or those you encounter) to love those who don't love them back.
This is the greatest problem in the world today.

End Time: 8:38am

Chapter One Hundred Eight

Friday, July 9, 2021 8:40am

As presented by (the spirit of) St. Mark the Evangelist

- 287. Yes, children should be taught to respect their elders but the elders should also respect children too. It goes both ways.
- 288. Children should never be harmed in any way, shape, or form.
- 289. Children will never like consequences for their behavior, but those consequences should only encourage better choices next time. Eventually a child who receives consequences will be grateful for them.

End Time: 8:46am

Chapter One Hundred Nine

Friday, July 9, 2021 8:49am

As presented by (the spirit of) St. Luke the Evangelist

- 290. The problem with humanity is that humans don't really know what they are. They just make assumptions.
- 291. Go outside and look up to the sky. It's free. Humans haven't figured out a way to charge for it yet.

End Time: 8:53am

Chapter One Hundred Ten

Friday, July 9, 2021 1:06pm

As presented by (the spirit of) Mother Theresa of Calcutta/St. Theresa

292. Help guide and shape children in your life by being a good example to them. Show them what to do, not what not to do.
293. Children look up to adults. Be someone whom they can look up to and not down upon.
294. Teach children early on to follow love at all times. If they can do this, they will never experience hardship.

End Time: 1:12pm

Chapter One Hundred Eleven

Friday, July 9, 2021 1:13pm

As presented by (the spirit of) Mary Magdalene

- 295. It's difficult to change adult behavior. While they are still impressionable, teach children to value their differences and not to fear them.
- 296. Try to find the common thread within the complexity of the human tapestry.
- 297. Let the sun set on everything. Let yesterday go and embrace the new day's possibilities.

End Time: 1:18pm

Chapter One Hundred Twelve

Friday, July 9, 2021 1:20pm

As presented by (the spirit of) Ronnie (James Dio)

298. God is everywhere. Stop denying it. There are good things everywhere and there will be more good things over time. It's a process.
299. Don't take yourself too seriously. You're just a cog in the wheel. Relax, the powers that be have this.
300. Let yourself be a 'Rainbow in the Dark'. It's a cool way to live.
